

UNIVERSITY OF THE INCARNATE WORD
 College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences
 HIST 3340
 Modern Europe
 Syllabus

Catalogue Description:

Context:

This course may not be repeated for credit. Prerequisite: none

Course Description:

This course studies the political, economic, and religious expansion of Europe from the 15th century to the present; the rise of the modern state system and the rise of modern society and economics during the 17th and 18th centuries; the impact of the French Revolution, nationalism, and mass politics in the last two centuries; the rise and fall of Totalitarianism in Bolshevik Russia, Fascist Italy, and Nazi Germany; the intellectual and artistic movements of the 19th and 20th centuries; the present conditions of Europe and its drive toward a unified Continent.

Course Outcomes:	Assessment:
Upon completion of the course, students will be able to	The objectives will be assessed
Recognize the various developments and events that have shaped the European Continent since 1500	By class discussion, essay exams, quizzes and research papers;
Demonstrate critical thinking, synthesis and analysis of institutions, cultures and nationalism and their role in shaping Europe	By class discussion ,presentations, essay exams, quizzes, research papers;
Recognize Europe's role in the modern world and the importance of moves towards a unified Europe.	By class discussion, presentations, essay exams,quizzes, research papers.

The University of the Incarnate Word is committed to providing a supportive, challenging, diverse and integrated environment for all students. In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act—Subpart E and Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the University ensures accessibility to its programs, services and activities for qualified students with documented disabilities. For more information, contact the Student Disability Services Office in the Administration Building, Room 105 at 210.829-3997 or Fax 210.829.6078 (online at www.uiw.edu/sds).

Academic Integrity Statement

University of the Incarnate Word is strongly committed to the nurturing of academic excellence. The University expects its students to pursue and maintain truth, honesty, and personal integrity in their academic work. Academic dishonesty, in any form, constitutes a serious threat to the freedoms which define an academic community. Forms of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to cheating, plagiarism, counterfeit work, falsification of academic record, unauthorized reuse of work, theft, collusion. See the student handbook for definitions and procedures for investigation of claims of academic dishonesty.