

The European Study Center (pictured above) is housed in the historical Villa Krehl, nestled in a charming, residential neighborhood. The ESC has comfortably furnished student rooms, classrooms, free internet access, a library, computer lab, laundry facilities, TV room, lounge, student kitchens, and a beautiful inner courtyard.

Shared housing at either the ESC - Villa Krehl, with a host family, or apartments

Student support services and health and safety assistance provided by a caring, on-site team

Experience German culture and local cuisine during social activities, group meals, holiday parties, and more

Commute to classes or explore the area on foot or by bike, bus, tram, or train

Discover the rest of Germany and Europe during weekends and semester breaks

Intensive German language courses are available upon request

ESC partners with the non-profit CEPA Foundation to provide a variety of grants, scholarships, and awards to students who qualify as well as to support a variety of charitable projects and initiatives. Visit the website for details. cepa-foundation.org/scholarships

Program Dates:

Fall mid August to mid. Dec.

Spring early Jan. to mid May

Summer I late May to late June

Summer II early July to early August

Ready to apply or have questions?

We're here to help. Connect with us in Europe or visit your academic and/or study abroad advisor on campus.

Current program dates, fees, course options, credit transfer, and eligibility requirements can be found on our website.

EUROPEAN STUDY CENTER

Bergstrasse 106

69121 Heidelberg, Germany

Phone: +49 (0) 6221 91 59 612

info@studyabroad-germany.eu

FALL / SPRING / SUMMER

studyabroad-germany.eu

CREDITS Images used under license from Shutterstock.com, iStockphoto.com, and the European Study Centers

About the Program

The ESC program blends a balanced combination of local and European faculty members teaching courses alongside visiting faculty from the US partner universities. Courses are taught in English at the ESC and the SRH University Heidelberg. For students with sufficient German skills, additional courses are available. Additionally, intensive German language courses are available at the ESC.

Semester highlights:
3-day trip to Berlin
2-day excursion to Strasbourg, France

Co-curricular and course-related excursions:
visit EU institutions, companies, castles, cultural organizations, museums, etc.

Heidelberg: in the Heartland of Europe

This charming, historic city is not only known for its educational excellence, but the city and surrounding area are also home to several global company headquarters, making it a fantastic study abroad destination for students studying international business and relations.

"Studying abroad in Heidelberg has easily been the best decision of my life, both personally and academically. Living at the ESC gave me the perfect blend of safety, academic focus, and cultural immersion. I highly recommend coming. You will see yourself transform into a more open-minded, culturally sensitive, and independent person."

Shilan S., ESC student, from New Jersey

Fields of Study

Fall and Spring Semesters: European Studies, German History, Germany Language, International Business, Psychology

Summer: Business, International Marketing, Communication, Culturology, German language, European Politics

U.S. semester credit:

Semester: up to 15 credits / Summer: 6 or 12 credits

U.S. transcripts are provided by the ESC School of Record. Visit the website for details.

Attend classes: at ESC and SRH University Heidelberg

Course instruction: English (Intensive French language courses are available upon request)

Class sizes: Small, typically 20 or fewer students

